19. (Twice Amended) A wound dressing comprises in combination
- (i) a first wound contact layer which comprises calcium alginate or [preferably has a positive effect on the healing of the wound, wherein said first wound contact layer provides for] a material which promotes clotting via agglutination of red cells,
  - (ii) a second layer of greater hydrophilicity than the first layer applied to said first wound contact layer, and
  - (iii) a breathable film associated with said first wound contact layer and said second layer having an increased MVTR capability in the presence of liquid water as compared to moisture vapor alone.
